Thunderbird Artists, producer of award-winning fine art and wine festivals, will line the banks of the Scottsdale Waterfront again this coming February, for the 11th Annual Waterfront Fine Art & Wine Festival. The featured artist, acrylic painter, Sarah Goodnough, uses expressive, vibrant color, strong composition and layered texture. She paints abstracted viewscales, pulling real life scenes into redefined realities of wonder and brilliance.

Sarah creates expressive art that reflects the beauty and mystery of life. Inspired by nature and the human spirit, she combines an intuitive style of painting with techniques using texture, layers of color and strong composition. Her paintings are distinctive visual experiences with sensitivity to mood and emotion. Her grand artistic goal is to visually explore concepts that teach, inspire and uplift the viewer. "I want to empower others to be their best, and to follow their dreams for who they want to be in the world; to make personal choices that leave them feeling inspired, alive, and living an exemplary life beyond the ordinary".

The Waterfront festival has quickly become a favorite among festival-goers as they enjoy the freedom of strolling the banks of the Waterfront District with their wine, while viewing a superior selection of juried fine arts. Patrons can also enjoy micro-brews, fine wines, spirits, delectable food, sweet treats and live music.
